Harold, you will be missed so much; you will be in our memories forever. You are my grandfathers (Ray Lawson) best friend and he is very saddened that you passed. May god be with your family and friends. Knowing you are with your wife once more is something to look foward to. We are truely sorry to lose such a wonderful and giving man. I remember the joke Harold and Ray pulled on my husband and I on our wedding day 6 yrs ago. Thank you for driving us around in your limo. I am so glad my grandfather had such a special person in his life. May you R.I.P.

I had a lot of fun times when he would load us up in the limo he had and take us out to Franke Park to see the Christmas Lights and when he would take us to Hall's to get something to eat with him.
