Cathy, Clayton, Cayla, and Family:As you all know, to be around Mark was to smile. That silly, goofy grin always got me going. Whether it was cheering at basketball games or screaming "WOCKA WOCKA WOCKA!!" at the girls while they were getting ready for a race, Mark and I ALWAYS acted like kids while we were around each other. It was fun to watch Cathy and Amy roll their eyes like, "Here they go again." Even after Cayla and Kayla graduated and we saw less of each other, on the occasions that we did see each other it didn't take long for us to start cutting up.I will miss him. I know that I will see him again when the Lord calls me home, but I will miss my Brother until that time. I loved Mark, and I love you all, too.May God's peace and comfort surround you and sustain you as you grieve his passing. He is still in our hearts, and we will all be reunited with Him one day.Love and hugs,Matt

John & Linda and family-I can't begin to tell you how shocked and saddened I was to hear about Mark's death. I can't even begin to imagine what you all are going through right now. Nothing that I can say can begin to soften your pain right now. Let me share the scripture that has seen me through some difficult times and I hope it can help you at this time as well. Psalm 30:5 As dark as the night may become, the sun will find a way to shine and chase the shadows away. My thoughts and prayers are with you all!
