Hazel and I had a wonderful conversation just two weeks ago and it was thru her effort that I was able to reconnect with Bryce after nearly 20 years. My condolences to Bryce and the Ohneck Family.

Deepest Sympathy to each of you and your families. I will remember her always as an attractive and talented artist. I have enjoyed the phone calls with her. I am so glad she was at the family reunion just a couple weeks ago.

My sympathy to the family. My first thought was of the days we spent with Stan and others in our class making horses for the prom. Hazel was a delight.
