I am saddened to hear that your Jim has died. Being happily married for over 50 years is a blessing to you, but difficult to be alone now. We thank God for his life and pray that God will be close to you and your family during this time of sadness and joy. I won't be able to attend the visitation or funeral Tuesday because I have a previous appointment that has been changed way too many times and we can't change it again. Give my love to Helen Cordis too. I worked with her often at the Thrift Shop. Joan Messmann

Joie, we're so very sorry to hear of your father's death. I know it doesn't seem like it now, but sooner than you think, your memories of him will make you smile and replace the intense sadness you must feel now. My father has been gone for 13 yrs, and his "daddy isms" have crept into all my presentations and make us laugh. I'll be praying for you as you get through these next several days. Love you, Susan
