Julie A. Redding, 49, passed away on Sunday, April 19, 2015 at Parkview Regional Medical Center, Fort Wayne after courageous battle with cancer. Born in Fort Wayne, she was a member of St. Peter's Lutheran Church, Fort Wayne. She loved helping people which led to her career as a registered nurse at Parkview Hospital for 23 years. A lover of life, she enjoyed traveling and eating out with her family. Every winter she and her family, who were her pride and joy, would take a weekend excursion to a hotel, where they enjoyed swimming and shopping. This movie lover could often be found watching a favorite flick with her cat Lincoln Fourpaws.

She is survived by her husband of 27 years, Wayne; children, Nicholas and Madelyn Redding both of Fort Wayne; parents, Kenneth and Shirley Luttenbacher of Fort Wayne; and brother, James Luttenbacher of Fort Wayne. She was preceded in death by her grandparents, Whitney and Josephine Luttenbacher; and in-laws, Dick and Iris Schlund.

Funeral service is 10:30 a.m. Friday at St. Peter's Lutheran Church, 7710 E. State Blvd., Fort Wayne with calling one hour prior. Pastor Steve Ahlersmeyer officiating. Calling is also 2 to 4 and 6 to 8 p.m. Thursday at E. Harper & Son Funeral Home, 740 St. Rd. 930 E., New Haven. Burial in Greenlawn Memorial Park, Fort Wayne. Preferred memorials are to St. Peter's Lutheran Church.

I'm so sorry to hear of Julie's passing. I have fond childhood memories of joining Julie & her parents on family outings. Julie & I attended Emmaus Lutheran School together where we could be found playing "Bewitched." We would take turns pretending to be Samantha & Serena. After school we would spend way to much time talking on the phone causing Julie to make the people on her party line upset. I hadn't seen Julie in a long time but we never forget our closest childhood friends do we?
