Gem was a most beautiful person inside and out. She and Ted we're mom and dad to us and grandma and grandpa to our daughters. We have missed them since moving from "the circle" in New Haven. She is with her beloved husband snd son and that gives us comfort. May Genny rest in the arms of her loving Saviour and play many Scrabble games in Heaven!!!

I am so sorry that I missed Gen's service. I was unaware of her death.Gen was part of the Bible Class I taught for many years. I found her to be thoughtful and insightful, questioning and yet confident in her Lord. I was in awe of her artistic ability, a talent she explored very humbly.Gen was a lady with lots of class. I thought very highly of her. God bless you as you grieve and yet rejoice.

I enjoyed many fun times with Gen at our Thursday morning Lincolnview Coffee Group gatherings. Also, Ted and Gen were a vital part of our neighborhood Bible Class. She loved her Savior, Jesus, and I always admired her faith, knowledge and talent. Now they both are experiencing the Joy of Jesus. They are missed.Arlene Krueckeberg
