A funny memory from when I was young. My cousin Laurie and I were mad at our parents so we decided to run away from home. We snuck out my bedroom window, we made it to Valley Ave. before uncle Frank found us, all he said was "get in the car", but the look on his face was more like "GET IN THE CAR NOW" and that was enough to scare the crap out of us both!!!! Needless to say we never did that again!!! I sure love and miss this man.
