"Death is nothing at all. I have only slipped away to the next room. I am I and you are you. Whatever we were to each other, that, we still are. Call me by my old familiar name. Speak to me in the easy way which you always used. Put no difference into your tone. Wear no force air of solemnity or sorrow. Laugh as we always laughed at the little jokes we enjoyed together. Play, smile, think of me. Pray for me. Let my name be ever the household word that it always was. Let it be spoken without effect. Without the trace of a shadow on it. Life means all that it ever meant. It is the same that it ever was. There is absolute unbroken continuity. Why should I be out of mind because I am out of sight? I am but waiting for you. For an interval. Somewhere. Very near. Just around the corner. All is well."

Dr. Ron, I am deeply saddened to hear of the passing of your son Conner. I know how hard it feels to bury a child, I buried 3 myself many years ago. Even though I never had a chance to know them, it hurt very much, I cant imagine after 19 years of knowing them how I would have felt. Many prayers for you Dr. Ron, my friend.

Dr. Rumbaugh, I am so incredibly sad upon hearing the news of your son. I don't believe there was a time that I spoke with you, that you didn't speak of Connor. I can only imagine the amount of sorrow one has from losing a child. My heart aches for you and your family. I will pray for you to receive some kind of comfort and peace so that you may attempt to somehow heal. May God be with you.
