Rex Lemar Werker

JUL 26, 1941 - NOV 9, 2017

Rex L. Werker, 76, passed away on Thursday, November 9, 2017 at home unexpectedly. Born and raised in Ligonier, he was the son of the late Russell and Edrie (Geiger) Werker. He was a past member of Sparta United Church of Christ, Cromwell. He proudly served his country in the US Air Force. He had worked as an insurance agent and a self-employed carpenter, retiring in 2003. Rex was also an avid Indianapolis Colts fan.

He is survived by his wife of 16 years; Eveann (Dager); children, Kris Clifford of Columbia City and Troy Werker of Fort Wayne; brother, Ron (Carol) Werker of Greenback, TN; grandchildren, Nikki (David) McCoy and Caden Clifford both of Columbia City; great grandson, Hayden; step daughter, Angela (Quinn) Cunningham of Fort Wayne; and step grandson, Teagan. He was also preceded in death by his wife, Nancy Cochran Werker.

Funeral service 2 p.m. Tuesday at Harper's Community Funeral Home, 740 State Road 930 E., New Haven with calling one hour prior. Pastor Jim Platner officiating. Calling is also 5 to 8 p.m. Monday at the funeral home. Burial in IOOF Cemetery, New Haven with military honors. Preferred memorials are to Shepherd's House or Cancer Services of Northeast Indiana.

Thank you dad, for inspiring my life, for being forgiving, for being affectionate, kind and caring, for giving me a home and raising me as your own when I was abandon, and nobody else wanted me, but most importantly, for loving me unconditionally. There are not enough words I can say to describe just how important my father was to me, and what a powerful influence he continues to be. I love you dad. You are the best. I miss you!

Eveann, Ronnie, Kris, Troy and family, so sorry for your loss. We will definitely miss Rex. Our thoughts and prayers are with you and the family.We always looked up to Rex since he was the oldest of the Werker cousins. We enjoyed his many stories (especially of the Air Force) and his sense of humor. We were also amazed at the amount of food Rex could put away.Rest in peace Rex.David Shellabarger
