I had just started to watch Chase and Tanner two weeks before Taylor went home to heaven... I met Taylor only once like 2 hours before she had to head to work but those 2 hours I won't forget. Taylor even though she just met me with her messy bun right on top of her head was so welcoming, funny and had so much love for her boys and her mom... we talked about our children and how we had them (she told me about the guacamole and I laughed so hard)... she and Tina messed around and joked and I just felt the love they had for each other. It warmed my heart!!! Jason, Tina and everyone else who knew and loved Taylor, saying 'sorry' won't bring her back or change what happened.. I pray each and everyday that God gives her family and friends comfort and hope that one day they'll see her smiling face again 😊 Just today tanner crawled up to her picture and I said "mommy" and he smiled so big 😊

Taylor and I spent most of our grade school days together. Every memory that I have with Taylor is so vivid and full of laughter. We would spend hours jumping on the trampoline, 4-wheeling, pranking her family members, making silly videos, listening to Kenny Chesney, and tubing at the lake. Taylor, naturally, brought happiness and laughter into any situation. Taylor taught me to laugh as much as possible, be fearless, and be confident. It was a blessing to have had Taylor as a friend.

Such a sweet little girl who came to our house many thanksgiving holidays with the family and loved to be in the kitchen. Where I was preparing the meal and "Toots" which is what we called her always wanted to lick the mashed potato beaters!! She was a very loving kind hearted person I will miss her !!! Aunt Dee

Words cannot express how someone feels at a time like this and no words can convey the sorrow I feel over the loss of such a wonderful young woman. Taylor welcomed me with open arms and it felt like we were family instantly. She was an amazing friend, mother, sister, daughter, niece...and her loss will be felt by myself and my family as long as we live. My deepest condolences to her parents, brothers, and her two beautiful sons, as well as the rest of her family and friends. We love you, Taylor. Luke, Ericka, and Syler

Taylor, your smile would light up a room in life, now, a castle in heaven. I am so fortunate to have so many fond memories of our visits to Indiana and your family over the years. I remember in 1990-i was 10 years old, Tyler was 3 years old driving lil' Tater Bug around in the electric jeep in the house cause it was cold outside. We all love you and miss you.

One of my favorite memories is you as a flower girl in my wedding. You were so adorable and I remember your pretty smile. You and my nephew Cameron danced the night away at our reception that's a memory I'll always cherish. I love you and miss you so much! Dawn Claghorn

Taylor was such a beautiful person inside and out. When we were together we would just laugh and do the most spontaneous things because she always had ideas. I remember one time I took Maxwell over to her house for a play date with Chase and they were both playing in the kiddie pool and we just couldn't believe that we were Mommas. I remember her saying to me that God gave me a boy so that our kids would be best friends forever. She was one of a kind that's for sure. We used to work together at a restaurant and we would sneak desserts and eat them really quick and jus laugh the whole time. There was never a dull moment in our friendship. One of the things that she was great at was loving her sweet boys! I will forever remember and miss her!

I have so many funny memories with Taylor, which is what I think she's remembered for the most is her sense of humor. We brought each other's goofy side out when we were together and we were always laughing. She always had ideas of some kind going on. She loved entertaining people and she loved music and dancing and having fun. I'll never forget when we both became pregnant and she jumped for joy screaming in excitement. She was so excited to be a mother. I hope Chase and Tanner know what a great mother she was and how much she loves you.

I started Woodlan my junior year. I transferred in from a small school. My very first day Taylor stopped me in the hall and ask me if I needed help finding my classes. She walked me to my first class, and told me her class was down the hall. She said she would catch up with after 1st period. After that class she walked me to my locker. She was always so kind to me and to everyone. Every time I saw her she would stop and talk to me. I will continue to pray for her family, friends & baby boys. If anything is ever needed please don't hesitate to reach out to me.

I'll always remember how much you loved life, gas station slushies, Roni Bologna, Sassy no tail, your friends, your family, and your kiddos. It is obvious how many groups of people you brought together. No matter what room you were in, you were everyone's friend, and the life of the party. You were the only person that could love Owl City, Backwoods country music, and Blink 182 all at the same time. You were by far the goofiest person I have ever met, and you always had the best variety of voices and sound effects for all occasions. In addition, you were always aware of every meteor shower to take place in an entire year, and I remember so many nights laying on your trampoline with blankets and watching them. Shooting stars will always remind me of you! Thank you from the bottom of my heart for being such a genuine friend who loved those around her so dearly. I am a better, sillier, and more loving person as a result of having known you.

"Tay Tay" - I met you in elementary school and thought I'd never seen a cuter girl; inside and out. Going through baseball season as our mgr, you knew the game. You helped me make food for the team and came over just to chat when we needed girl time. I remember you taking two cell phones to school in case they confiscated one of them, you'd have a spare! I knew you were strong, smart, & sassy and I loved you. Tina and Jason, the most supportive parents I know. She appreciated you both immensely. Jesus keep us until we see you again.
