My deepest sympathy to the family of Carolyn Hoagland. My mother, Barbara (Schey) Coverdale and her were friends years ago, I believe in high school. I remember visiting the Hoagland family when they lived around Southgate Shopping Center. As a young child we would receive cards from the family for our birthdays and holidays, some of which I still have. When my mom and I would see the Hoagy Wreckers we would think of the family. Cherish your memories of your mom forever in your hearts.
