Sweet, spicy Nana with her stellar appearance than was always topped off with a handbag bigger than her little self! I loved the way she engaged in a conversation that left me feeling like I was included and important. I am so grateful that Nana was shared so lovingly by Shannon and Kim (and family). I will always cherish those fun memories of your family dinners out that Nana was full of life's enjoyment watching all her people being their authentic selves. I am praying you feel God's arms of comfort as you find your new normal without her here on earth. She is home in the arms of Christ, fully restored and awaiting God's promise of seeing you all again.
