I had the honor of knowing your mom for the past 25 or so yrs...I loved working with her and would make it a point to visit her each time I was home for vacation after moving to Florida..I will miss our weekly phone calls and her offer to send me a box of white stuff in exchange for a box of yellow stuff....I would always refuse the box of snow but she would never refuse the box of sunshine...I will definitely miss her and count her as one of my closest friends . Your family will be in my thoughts and prayers during this time but know that she loved each of you dearly and spoke highly of each of you often..fly high Dorothy Jane..rest easy...love always!!!!
