“ Beautiful Clara...I am so glad I got to see you one last time. I think our paths crossed that day for a reason. You were one of the most beautiful souls that I have ever met on this earth and I will never, ever forget you. Dawn, I am so sorry for the loss of your momma. I would love to come to the celebration of life if you want me to. My email is missy0307@gmail.com if you want to give me details at a later date. I will be thinking of you in the coming days. From my own personal experience, losing your mom is a loss like no other, especially when she was as special as yours was. Love to all of you.
