“ I am sad I won't be able to visit with Lloyd anymore.

I feel blessed to have grown up next door to Lloyd, Nancy, Tim, Don, Larry, Julie and Renee Gremaux.

I will remember:

- The love he showed for his wife, family, neighbors and friends.
- Lloyd's giggle at times when he would be caught off guard, when we talked.
- Lloyd's love he shared for his family, continually, as they were his topic every day.
- His perpetual Christmas nativity scene he placed outside in the front yard annually @ Christmas, circa the same I am blessed to own.
- Lloyd's vibrant Hibiscus we admired; his labor of love he brought outside every spring, then took inside annually.
- How he bathed in every chance he had to work and walk outside in his yard.
- The smell of Lloyd's grill as it filled the air on Sunday's in the summer.
- At Nancy's funeral he spoke to Zita (my mother) and I, with his actions, Lloyd could not speak, (Which spoke volumes to both of us).
- Lloyd's wife and children were blessed to have such a devout and devoted father who placed the Good Lord first and his family next.

Lloyd you will be missed by everyone you touched during your lifetime, as we weather this difficult path without you.

(The meek shall inherit the earth, this describes you Lloyd).

Much Love to Tim, Don, Larry, Julie, and Renee, what a beautiful, loving, close knit family that are Nancy and Lloyd's legacy, as God intended.

Many Prayers
