

Lottie W. Garrison

May 29, 1919 - May 29, 2013

Lottie W. Garrison, 94, of New Haven, formerly of Belen, NM and Daretown, NJ, died May 29, 2013 at home. Born in Woodbury, NJ, she was the daughter of the late David and Mable Wallace. Lottie loved needlework, crossword puzzles, bingo, and meeting people. She and her husband, Henry, enjoyed traveling the USA for many years after retirement.

She is survived by her husband of 76 years, Henry; children, Alice (Fieldy) Dize of Fort Wayne and David (Audrey) Garrison of Albuquerque, NM; five grandchildren; 11 great grandchildren; three great great grandchildren; and two nephews and their families. She was also preceded in death by her sister, Emily Browning.

No services.

Comments

“ I only knew Lottie through Alice, who I know cared for her mother very much. I will pray for peace and comfort for Henry and family. Love Jean

Jacqueline Lockard - August 20, 2014 at 10:45 AM

“ I was so sorry to hear of Lottie's passing. Lottie and her husband were next door neighbors at the Vista Del Rio Mobile Home Park for 12 years. She was a very kind and dear person. My thoughts and prayers are with her family.

Evelyn S. - August 20, 2014 at 10:45 AM

“ My condolences to Henry, Alice and David and your family. What a lovely lady. It has been almost 50 years since Lottie and Henry have been in my life. But their kindness and affection is still warm in my heart. Lottie drove a school bus for Daretown Elem. School. She knew my parents, John and Elsie Garrison. Lottie took a liking to me because of my name...I think Alice you had moved away for college, but Lottie scooped me up! I was her travel buddy one time to Virginia(?) to visit her relatives. I remember a crystal-like necklace Lottie gave me for my 8th grade graduation. My sadness is that I did not keep contact with this precious lady. Now my sadness is double. If you remember someone who was an encouragement to you in the past and you've lost contact...please take a moment and reach out to them...don't lose the opportunity as I have. Love to you all.

Alice Garrison Loveland - June 17, 2013 at 12:00 AM