“ Such sad news. So sorry for your loss. Mike was one of the good guys. I worked with him in Endicott, NY. Always with a smile. We talked many times about cars , etc. Glad to see he has such a large family to remember him. All my love.

“ I am so sorry to hear the news. Our families knew each other from way back. I was told it was his dad who taught my mom how to ride a bicycle. I knew Mike from the time we were toddlers together in the nursery at the church in Kirkwood. Later, his dad and uncle helped build my parents' house, and sometimes Mike (we were then pre-teens) came along to help too. We went to the same school for part of our high school years. Many years later, I got to meet his wonderful daughter. I'll always remember Mike's mischievous, but good natured, sense of humor. Hal Lewis

“ I met Mike in Dallas at Texas Instruments. I was a young 21 year old kid and Mike took me under his wing and made sure I could fit in and succeed. He was always the funniest, most kind person. My condolences to his family.

“ When I signed on at IBM in Essex Junction VT in 1994 Mike was kind, supportive and yet would pull practical jokes on you...He was always encouraging and I am thankful for working with a fun and gentle man. Farewell. Ed Cooney

“ I can't believe my buddy Mikey is gone. He was a man always smiling and joker. He and Gary Pouliot and I were like the three musketeers up here at IBM in Vt. Mike will be sorely missed, he was a good friend.
My condolences Linda, to you and the rest Mike's family. Andy LaRocque-

“ We visited with Mike and Linda in January. Mike was not feeling well so we took Linda out to lunch. Mike always has a smile and a great sense of humor.

“ Mike worked in Dept 222-3 and I was in 222-2.

He was a lot of fun to be around an a very good shift mechanic.

His stories about his mischievous children cracked us up! I suspect they inherited that from him!

He will be missed.

God's speed shipmate.

“ We had a lot of good times as little kids growing up .mike always had a beautiful smile and a wonderful sense of humor . When we were older one day when i was picking him up for work , i got stopped for going to fast through a school zone and i did not have a inspection sticker. The police man gave me a warning and when we were leaving Mike was laughing . I said why are you laughing this is not funny , he said if you were a guy you would have gotten a ticket we had a good laugh . I am so sorry for your loss . He will be missed by many . He will always be here in our hearts and lots of great memories . lots of prayers for his beautiful family

“ Growing up in my dad's tire store, I was always bugging my big brother Mikey. I dont ever remember him not working, he was a worker and even tho i was young, i will always remember his corky smile. He taught me how to sneak candy bars out of the vending machine at the tire store which was great until the day our dad caught me and of course i tattled on Mikey for teaching me. Most importantly, i remember him helping me when i I was climbing thru the rows of tires actually hiding from him cause he was mad at me for fooling with his stuff and a tire tipped trapping me and I was crying and he pulled me out which took alot of effort and it hurt my arm in the process. At the point he finally got me out, dad showed up and yelled at Mikey and I have always felt bad that I didn't tell dad Mikey was saving me, not hurting me. Several years back, Mikey and I spent some time reconnecting which was a blessing to me because I adored my older brother. He had a deep heart and he truely suffered the pain of our dads bad life decisions but Mikey is finally free of those strong holds. I will some day see my brother again, happy, with his mother. I am so sorry to all his beautiful children and wife for the loss of Mikey.
